Before

After

1. Select a high quality and colorful image with a strong focal point that's easy to identify and import it to Lightroom.

2. Go to the Develop Module. Using the Global Adjustments, enhance your photo so that it's the best it can be.
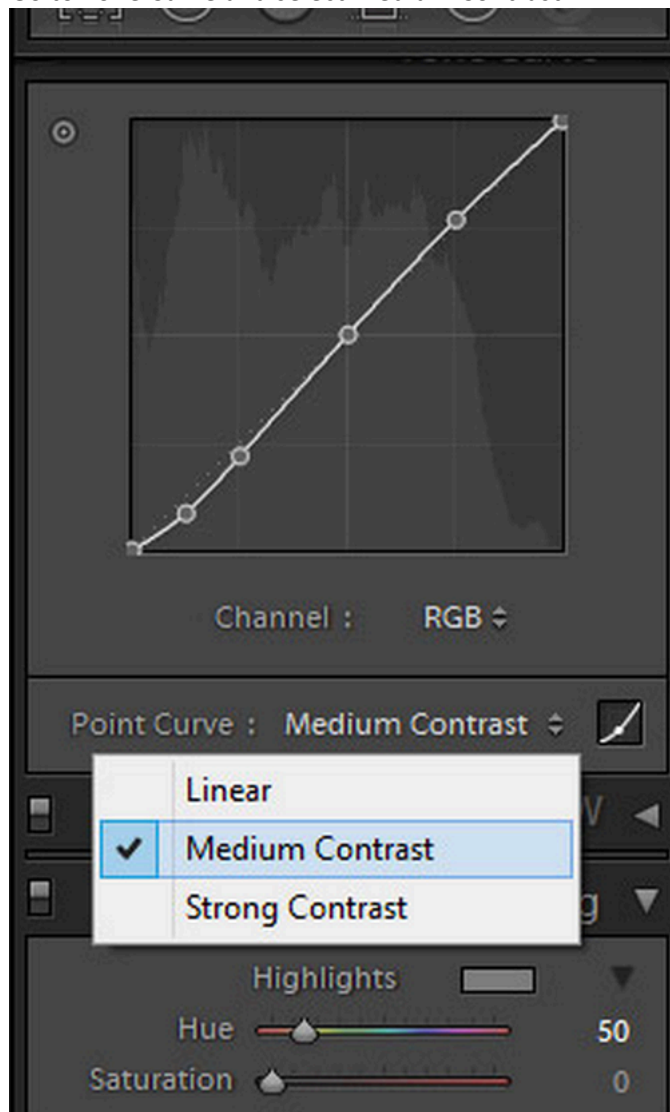

Lightroom Tutorial
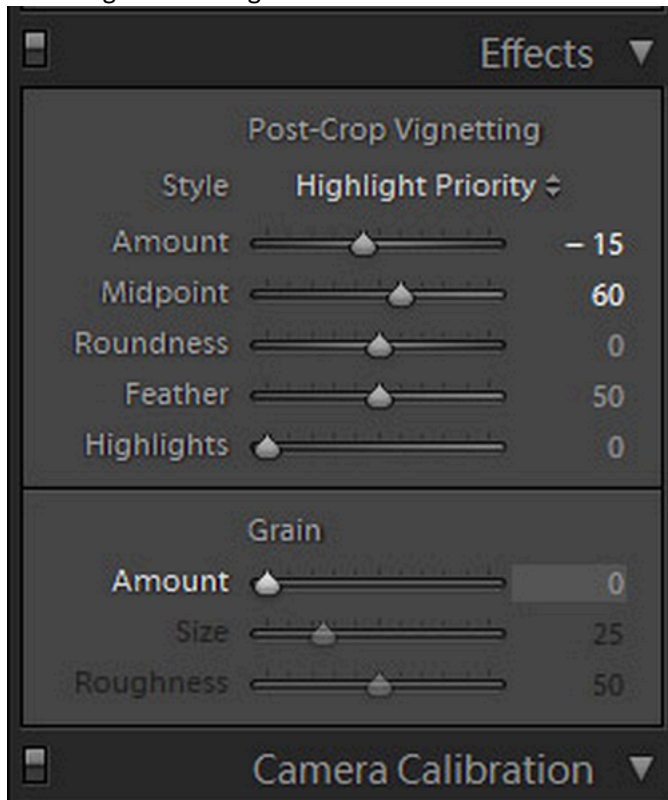

3. Go to the Basic Panel and make the following changes:

4. Go to Tone Curve and select Medium Contrast.

Lightroom Tutorial

Cinema

5. Add a vignette. Navigate to the Effects Panel and make the following changes:

6. Continue to enhance your photo, making it the best it can be.

7. When you are done, export a full resolution your photo to a safe place. Then, export a copy that is sized for the web. Be sure not to overwrite your full resolution copy.

8. Add your web sized copy to your online portfolio for grading.